Boo follows the sound until he comes to a dark and spooky cave. He takes a peek inside and sees a big, scary monster! The monster is covered in fur and has sharp teeth. Boo is so scared that he wants to run away, but he knows that he can't. He has to be brave.

Boo takes a deep breath and says, "Hello, monster." The monster turns around and looks at Boo. "Hello," the monster says. "What are you ng here?"

"I'm looking for my friend," Boo says. "I heard a noise and I followed it here." The monster looks at Boo for a moment and then smiles. "Your friend is safe," the monster says. "He's playing in the next room."

Boo is so relieved! He follows the monster to the next room and sees his friend playing with a group of other monsters. Boo is so happy to see his friend safe and sound.

Boo and his friend play with the monsters for a while and then it's time to go home. Boo says goodbye to the monsters and thanks them for helping him find his friend. The monsters wave goodbye and Boo flies away.

As Boo flies home, he thinks about what happened. He was scared at first, but he was also brave. He faced his fears and learned that he could do anything he set his mind to.
